RE: Invitation to Attend Symposium
Information Security Oversight Office
Washington, D.C.
6 December 1988

The Director of the Information Security Oversight Office (ISOO), Steven Garfinkel, has invited you to attend a symposium entitled, "National Security Information: The Reagan Years and Beyond" which will be held at the Department of State on 6 December. Lieutenant General Colin L. Powell will present the opening remarks, and other speakers will include Congressman Henry J. Hyde, former Deputy Director of the National Security Agency, Walter G. Deeley, former Executive Secretary and General Counsel of the National Security Council, Robert M. Kimmitt, Vice President of Harvard, John Stattuck, and John Walcott from THE WALL STREET JOURNAL.

ISOO has also extended 25 invitations to the Agency, and representatives from the Office of Security, the Office of General Counsel, the Information Service Division, Public Affairs Office, and the History Staff plan to attend. Due to your heavy schedule, I recommend that you decline this invitation. If you agree, a letter of regret is attached for your signature.

Dear Mr. Garfinkel:

I appreciate your kind invitation to attend the symposium sponsored by the Information Security Oversight Office on December 6th at the Department of State. I would like to be with your group, but unfortunately, my schedule is heavily booked and I cannot make a commitment for that date. However, I understand that several Agency officers will be attending.

I wish you a most successful program.

Dear Judge Webster:

On behalf of the staff of the Information Security Oversight Office (ISOO), I want to extend a personal invitation for you to attend a symposium entitled, "National Security Information: The Reagan Years and Beyond." The symposium will be held on Tuesday, December 6, 1988, in the Dean Acheson Auditorium of the Department of State.

As you can see from the enclosed announcement, the symposium features an outstanding line-up of speakers, and promises to be an excellent forum for the discussion and debate of the foremost policy issues that touch upon the subject of national security information. The timing of the symposium is purposeful. By coming after the presidential election but before the inauguration, we encourage and anticipate the most candid expression of the speakers' opinions.

If you will be attending, please let us know by calling June Brown at 535-7255. For security purposes, an advance reservation will be necessary.

Sincerely,
